Description

Charming sideboard with double body in painted wood, rechampi red and decorated with multiple decorations. The lower part rests on a plinth and opens with two leaves each embellished with a beautiful decoration of fruit and flower stems, the sides are also decorated, its cream-colored top is decorated with a garland alternating flowers, strawberries, and cherries. The upper part opens with two glass doors revealing two shelves. The sides are also decorated in the same way as the bottom. The in-between forms a large niche decorated with grapes, flowers and currants. A nice decorative work has been done on this piece of furniture made in the 1900s. The various decorations are real paintings. Note some small traces of repairs on the edge of the top as well as a small lack and trace of gluing on the top of the
