Description

Very elegant secretary in burr walnut veneer, early 19th century. Rare piece of furniture with its very original unusual decor, with its sticks resting on bronze claw feet on cylindrical columns reaching halfway up; the interior decor is theatrical and very architectural, with a curved bottom. Very nice cabinet work with veneer and varnish in perfect condition; the fonsures are neat; the leather is changed. Two secret caches are themselves concealed under three drawers which only open if you find the well-hidden opening systems. Height 149 cm / Max dimensions at marble: 97 x 48.5 cm
