Description

Art deco chandelier in wrought iron and glass.
The artistic ironworker values his hammered and chiseled work. The temples are volute in shape and assembled to the frame thanks to a skyscraper shape. In the center we find the waves and circles typical of this period. The arm is sheath-shaped and the high dome recalls the vegetated root. The basin (46 cm in diameter) is decorated with pansy and the tulips (13 cm high) are decorated with foliage motifs. beautiful light! Bayonet bulbs.
