

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Saint Louis / Jean Sala Art Deco Cup

590 EUR

Signature : Bel état

Period : 20th century

Condition : Be

Material : Crystal

Description

Superb Art Deco crystal cup made by Jean Sala for the Saint Louis crystal factory. Large pedestal basin decorated with cogs. Height: 14.6 cm Basin width: 27.1 cm Weight: 4kg120 In very good condition, some tiny scratches from use and 2 really tiny micro chips. A very beautiful piece in thick crystal, ideal as a centerpiece. The foot takes up a decoration of typically Art Deco cogs. Signed with the stamp of Saint Louis and signature of Jean Sala. A rare piece on the market. Small presentation of Jean Sala renowned master glassmaker. Jean SALA (1895-1976) is a Catalan, who arrived in Paris at the age of eight, was already swinging the iron canes and practiced blowing. He was doing his apprenticeship alongside his father, a glassmaker like all the Salas. Despite the School of Fine Arts and

Dealer

MissLittleBottle Antiquités

Tableware, crystal, silverware and decoration

Mobile : 0681663747

Rive-de-Gier 42800

painting, which remains his relaxation, Jean Sala has remained faithful to the oven near which the processes of the old Venetian glassmakers were transmitted to him. He studies the work of the Phoenicians, Romans, Arabs. But copying is not enough, the artist draws the pieces, seeks their volume, elegance and color. Linking the fantasy of his discoveries to the burning sand of the crucible is one of his joys. He carefully chooses the metal oxides and places his touches in the fire... From 1933 to 1939, he created for the crystal works of Saint Louis a table service, vases, cups, candlesticks and animal subjects including his popular fish. He exhibited with his father until the 1920s. Then in national and international exhibitions.