Description

Our Holy Man is luminous here and imbued with the wisdom that is attributed to those who are in the Truth. 18th century school, this rectangular oil on canvas presents our Holy Man in an oval bezel. In the 14th century, he was a martyr priest. Identifiable by the wearing of his priestly habit, a crucifix in his hand, and the palm of martyrdom, he is notably the patron saint of boatmen, bridges and priests, which makes him one of the most venerated saints.
