Description

Art deco period chandelier in silvered bronze. The line offers real modernity with this hexagon shape. The frame includes a staircase shape at the end of the branches and also juxtaposed with the glass balls. The patterns are decorated with fish scales and gadroons. The arm is turned, sheathed and the high dome is in molded hexagon, maintained by an openwork geometric link. The flat glasses are sandblasted and the balls blown. (diam 8 cm) 6 bayonet bulbs and 6 screw bulbs. New electricity. Possible delivery not included in the price
