Description

Important Medici shaped pot cache in openwork copper. Pedestal decorated with lambrequins, foliage and acanthus, the upper part is fixed by rivets. The composition of the decoration is centered, decorated in a symmetrical and balanced way with volutes and arabesques. The edge of the collar and the base of the foot are mounted on stiffeners France 18th century

Beyond its use as a cache pot to receive plants, this cache pot can be transformed without any modification into a lamp (photos) or surmounted by a tray of glass, it could serve as a coffee table thanks to its height of 47 cm. Very beautiful object of curiosity and decoration!
