Description

Raymond Trameau (1897-1985): "Abstract wall sculpture", mixed technique on black painted chipboard 41 X 39 cm, combining enamels on copper, yellow copper and chiseled red copper edged with tin. A protean artist, Trameau was also a painter, sculptor, ceramist and also one of the best enamellers of his time, figurative with a cubist tendency in his early days, before evolving towards a more tempered abstraction in contact with the musicalists, especially Valensi, of whom he was the friend. Our sculpture, probably created in the 60s is a superb example. Do not hesitate to ask us for photos or additional information by email or telephone. Other photos and many other objects in our shops in Pau and Biarritz and on our website: galerielhoste.com.
