Description
-------------

Very beautiful oil on cardboard signed by Michel Uhlich (1937-2016), representing clowns and harlequins in the circus. This is an early work by the French painter, the latter was born in 1937. At the bottom right, there is also a shipment probably to one of his friends.

Trained at the School of Fine Arts in Saint-Étienne from 1952 to 1955, Michel Uhlich, after a few promising exhibitions, left his hometown in 1959 to "go up" to Paris. The exhibitions follow one another in particular at the Bernheim Jeune Gallery but also in Germany, Switzerland, Sweden, Poland and the United States where Uhlich has fervent collectors.

In 1964, the painter met the filmmaker René Clair
