Description

Elegant carved walnut cabinet. The upper part opens with a large molded door, cornice and pediment. False uprights with ionic flat half-columns and claw feet. Large framed panel bearing the letter T, decorated with guilloches, leaf scrolls, shells and cut leather. Molded plinth with projections and overturned coves. Lock on the left side, so as not to alter the facade. The lower part opens with two doors and two large drawers without gadrooned crosspiece. Chocolate bar panels and finials. Molded plinth with small overturned coves. Feet in the shape of acorns, with skates. Mounted on oak. Very good quality of walnut and sculpture, similar to the productions of Honoré Dufin. Around 1880. Total height 218 cm (low 118.5 cm, high 99.5 cm), top width 120 cm, top depth 54 cm. Possible delivery.
