Description

Multifunction table, all faces, made in Paris. Its rectangular top is inlaid with small lozenges in rosewood veneer, framed by a double fillet of lemon tree, a mitred band, then a brass quarter round on the edge. Of the same composition, the belt has a drawer provided with an original functional lock with its key. The double top slides out, revealing a writing area dark with a felt with golden vignette, as well as compartments and a pen tray. This shelf opens with three hinges onto a dressing table with an original bevelled mirror, surrounded by a molded rosewood stick. The interior, in lemon tree, is compartmentalized. The double tray unfolds, offering a games table lined with a felt with a golden vignette. The perimeter is in rosewood veneer arranged in a frieze and inlaid with two lemon tree fillets.
