Description

This coffee table, rectangular in shape with cut sides in the corners, is adorned with a belt of wrapped scrolls, and covered with a loose glass plate. The top is also made up of volutes starting from the outside and meeting inwards, forming a central circle. It rests on four large flat feet, in wrought iron, always with the same ornament sculpted in a spiral, on the top and bottom, held together by a rectangular flat iron. On the outside, a long ribbed sheet of shaped metal adorns the four legs. A pretty coffee table that can find its place both in an indoor and outdoor living room.

Period: 1930.
