Description

We present for sale this 2nd and important Louis XIII easy chair with ears. The particularity of these ears is that they are removable, they can be removed, unlike the one we put on previously.

Good condition of the woodwork, the upholstery seems relatively good to us and the quality fabric placed on it shows a little wear. You will notice that in the development of the photos we present them together because there can be faculty of reunion but it will always be about a false pair.

Both come from a sumptuous residence. (E)
