Description

Exceptional oil painted on wood panel. by Gaston Balande French painter and draftsman born in Madrid on May 31, 1880 and died on April 8, 1971 in Paris. Frequents the painter Henri Joseph Harpignies, and Cormon. Exhibits in Brazil, Belgium, Switzerland, Italy, United States exhibits in Pittsburgh alongside Georges Braque and Picasso and Vlaminck. Gaston Balande also meets Albert Marquet and Paul Signac. What great encounters. Here on this magnificent dashboard of the Seine with all its daily animation we find the indelible imprint of its collaboration with Marquet, in this nervous and controlled brushstroke! Palette of remarkable colors superbly posed with delicacy and a lot of talent! Here marked on the back of the panel: study of the painter in 1906 for his painting of the
