Description

Large decorative dish in Limoges porcelain decorated with a bouquet of roses, made by the Simonnet workshops, second half of the 20th century. This superb dish has the advantage of being able to be presented both vertically and horizontally, the decoration of roses being able to be viewed in both directions. Very pretty soft and romantic colors, white enamel highlights on some flower petals. Gold edging all around. Brand present on the back of the dish with the mention "decorated by hand". Shipping costs for metropolitan France 20 euros, other destinations contact us.
