Description

Superb and elegant little curved chest of drawers from the 18th century. It rests on a cambered base fitted with a gilt bronze winding shoe. The base is assembled by fretted crosspieces, it opens on the front with 2 curved drawers, the sides with mirror panels are also curved. The whole piece of furniture is decorated with geometric inlay patterns as well as rosewood fillets. The tray with sheets is scalloped and molded. Beautiful quality work in excellent condition and with very elegant proportions.
