Description

Elegant small sandstone soliflor vase by Charles GREBER (Beauvais 1853 -1935). A renowned ceramist, he made a lasting mark on Beauvais ceramics and developed the family business, created by his father in 1870, while making it his celebrity. This pretty soliflor vase is very well made, the blue green color is slightly pearly which gives it usperbe nuances. The shell shape ends with a small collar. The signature is below with a stamp. Quality work with a modern line in excellent condition and conservation.
