Description

This striking mantel clock is a fine example of the Empire style, a period characterized by its grandeur and inspiration from classical antiquity. The clock showcases a masterful combination of materials and craftsmanship, resulting in a piece that is both visually stunning and functionally versatile.

The clock features a beautifully sculpted bronze figure of a reclining muse, likely representing music or poetry. The figure is elegantly draped and holds a lyre, adding a touch of artistic sophistication. The clock face, likely made of enamel, is framed by a decorative surround, possibly featuring motifs inspired by Greek or Roman architecture.

The clock rests on a base of red marble, providing a rich and luxurious contrast to the bronze. The
