

Pin Brooch Old Fine Pearls

4 000 EUR

Period: 19th century

Condition: Très bon état

Material: Gold

Description

Old brooch forming in the center a cross motif set with fine pearls, separated and surmounted by rose-cut diamonds. The thin bar is adorned on both sides with old-cut diamonds and ends at each end with a fine pearl. The hanging system is a pin with safety hook.

Period: 19th century

Main material: yellow gold, 18 carats, 750

thousandths.

Proportions: Width: 6 cm, height: 16.8 mm, thickness: 7.2 mm. Diameter of the beads at the ends: 6/6.5 mm approximately.

Diameter of the beads of the central motif: 5/5.5

mm and 4/4.5 mm approximately.

Net weight: about 6.1g.

Authentic old jewel - French work from the end

Dealer

BAUME

The jewels expertise since 1975

Mobile: 05 49 41 18 19

28 rue de Magenta

Poitiers 86000

of the 19th century.

Our opinion: The pinkish-white orient of the pearls illuminates this simple, very elegant antique jewel.

To find out more

Discover the product sheet for this Old Fine Pearls Hairpin Brooch online.

Find all our old jewelry on our Baume Jewelry store