4 000 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Gold

Description

Old brooch forming in the center a cross motif set with fine pearls, separated and surmounted by rose-cut diamonds. The thin bar is adorned on both sides with old-cut diamonds and ends at each end with a fine pearl. The hanging system is a pin with safety hook. Period: 19th century Main material: yellow gold, 18 carats, 750 thousandths. Proportions: Width: 6 cm, height: 16.8 mm, thickness: 7.2 mm. Diameter of the beads at the ends: 6/6.5 mm approximately. Diameter of the beads of the central motif: 5/5.5 mm and 4/4.5 mm approximately. Net weight: about 6.1g. Authentic old jewel - French work from the end of the 19th century. Our opinion: The pinkish-white orient of the pearls illuminates this simple, very elegant antique jewel. To find out more Discover the
