

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Officer's Saber Of The National Guard Or Of The National Volunteers Said To The Lion Climbing.

5 600 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Description

Officer's saber of the National Guard or the National Volunteers, known as the climbing lion France, circa 1790 - 1792
Steel, gilt brass, basane.
Length. T. : 88,5cm ; L. of blade : 73cm

Brass mounting. Cap in leonine skin and long tail in its gilding. Handle tied, covered with basane and filigree. Arc of jointing prolonging itself by a plate opened with two rings of reinforcement. Between the secondary branches, lion climbing on a tree trunk. Between the arch and the lower secondary branch, a rooster on a grenade. Blade à la Montmorency, blue on the third part, with a decoration on a gold background: Sun, stars, Arabesque, half-moon, bundle of arms and the motto Vaincre ou mourir; the second part is in

Dealer

Galerie FCP Coridon

Old weapons and cutlery. Tribal Arts. Objects of curiosities

Tel : 06 81 15 31 79

Mobile : 06 75 98 11 19

110 rue des rosiers

Saint-Ouen 93400

its original bright polish.

Leather scabbard, with two brass fittings; cap with button; asymmetrical iron stinger.

Very good condition

Ref :2964

Text and photos © FCP CORIDON