

Wool And Silk Persian Isfahan Rug, Circa 1950

2 500 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Wool

Length : 160

Width : 100

Diameter : n°225

Description

High quality lambswool velvet called "kork" and silk, made on silk.

Delicate rug with central ivory medallion inlaid with foliage, garlands of arabesque flowers surrounding a sky/night blue starry medallion on a poppy red background.

These rugs are made in the city of Isfahan in southwestern Iran. They are considered today as some of the finest Persian rugs. They are characterized by very high density, richly detailed patterns and high quality materials.

Size : 160x100 cm

Condition : worn edges and selvages, some white knots visible in the red background, wear to the fringes shortened by time.

<https://www.proantic.com/en/1008821-wool-and-silk-persian-isfahan-rug-circa-1950.html>

Dealer

ShArt~Antik

Antique Carpets, Tapestries & Textiles

Mobile : 0617926662

10A rue de Sarraaltroff

Reding 57445