Description

Regional scriban in solid walnut, in the modernist style. The inclined upper part has a flap, framed with a split central panel, equipped with a functional lock with entry and key. Open, it rests on two zippers, providing more stability and sturdiness. This writing space is dark with soft green leather, with golden vignette and central motif. The stepped interior, also in walnut, offers four small drawers of the same height fitted with brass lens knobs. We find, in the lower part of this piece of furniture, two deep drawers also equipped with authentic locks in working order, entries and keys. You will appreciate this little scriban in particular for its drawers with well thought-out dimensions, for its multifunctionality, and its very beautiful patina. ***** Period: Early 20th century Excellent condition.
