Description

The set consists of a pair of crystal cruets mounted on vermeil mounts and their oval vermeil top with a wide rim embellished with a large frieze of acanthus leaves and a molded frieze of bay leaves.

Cruets are baluster-shaped with spherical body, high neck, geometric handle of square section lined with pearls. They rest on a circular pedestal with twisted gadroons. The frames have a repoussé, chiseled and cut-out decoration of acanthus leaves, a frieze of waves, pearls and laurel garlands with ribbon ties.

The domed lids decorated with acanthus friezes are mounted on hinges and end with a pine cone grip.
