Description

This small Renaissance-style solid oak chest has a front with two side panels, decorated with flowerbeds, and whose central carved motifs are flowers and foliage. In the middle, we find this same inspiration, framed by scrolls. The top, mounted on brass hinges, has bec de corbin mouldings. The sides are also composed of flowerbed panels with a cross-shaped groove over their entire surface. The set rests on a plinth with multiple mouldings, two slab feet at the front and two straight feet at the back. This small format oak chest will give a rustic touch to your interior.
