Fireplace Trim In Regulates And Cherry Marble - 1920

1 200 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Excellent état

Description

Three-piece mantelpiece set; a clock and two vases, all resting on a cherry red marble base and four feet, slightly curved in bronze with foliage, foliage and scrolls. On the top of the clock, a patinated spelter, an allegory of the harvest representing a young woman with her hair up, dressed in a draped dress, holding a basket of grapes in her right hand and lifting a bunch with her left hand. The two lidded spelter vases have handles with floral scrolls, and a portrait of a child surrounded by flowers on their belly. With its patterns and elements reminiscent of Nature, the youth of life and the coming autumn, these decorative elements will find their place on the top of your fireplace.
