Description

Beautiful rug from the Anatolian countryside, borrowing light, colors and mysticism.

This type of simple carpet, knotted by women in remote provinces, tell the story of people's lives, their fears and their happiness, the pieces from Anatolia are always colorful, knotted in very good quality wool.

Decorated with a large medallion with pendants, borrowing from rusticity, far from the pure and very elaborate decorations of city carpets, this type of piece has a particular charm.

They are very comfortable, because they are thick and soft.

Note the presence of two characters, pink and green at the top of the carpet, a couple for a wedding, children, pregnant women announcing happy news, the mystery will remain in its
