Description

Oil on cardboard (51x41) by Léolo Fiaux (1909-1964), View of Venice, well framed (61.5x 51.5), imperfections on the frame. ""The directness of the design, the dark contours highlighting the characters, the dull, watery or purple quality of the colours, thrown like puddles, all this contributes to creating a relatively confined atmosphere, which surprises from a spirit so free, attracted by spaces, but which gives these compositions a particular intensity, a density."
