Description

Very beautiful model of binet candlestick from the end of the 16th century - beginning of the 17th century, of French origin. Made in bronze of four elements fitted on a metal rod fixed by screws: the foot, the barrel, the cup and the binet. Triangular stepped base mounted on three claw-like feet. Barrel turned baluster shape. A few flaws on the barrel causing the metal to leak (indicated by arrows in the detail photo) very acceptable. Professional polishing. Beautiful metal patina. Note: magnificent profiles of the edges of the base triangle. Price nonnegotiable. Delivery: EUR10 for metropolitan France.
