Gourd Called Shepherd In Translucent Blown Glass Early 19th Century - Popular Art Glassware

200 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Glass

Width : 19 cm

Height : 26 cm

Depth : 13 cm

Description

So-called shepherd's gourd in translucent blown glass -
Folk Art glassware from the early 19th century -
Irregular oblong shape, traces of blowing with bubbles, reinforcement at the neck with a strong irregular band, top of the neck slightly ground from origin, trace of the cane of the master glass blower , presence of a protuberance in the shape of a nipple on the ass.
Good condition, note slight traces of use and tiny limescale deposit.
Originally this type of bottle was clissé, wrapped in a weaving of straw to protect them during travel. Interesting and unusual shape.
Dimensions: 26 cm high x 19 cm wide x 13 cm deep
Weight: 850 g

Dealer

Les Couloirs du Temps - Samuel Collin

Folk Art and Popular Traditions, Regionalism, Curiosity

Tel : 06 81 53 21 70

Mobile : 06 70 45 88 65

Impasse des Ventes

Mézières-en-Drouais 28500