Description

Charming mushroom lamp in hot-enamelled glass with garlands of polychrome flowers falling on an acid-frosted background. They are distributed on either side of a large decorative pattern in an intense red-orange color with the geometry typical of the nascent Art Deco style. Its hat is held by a beautiful frame with a tripod base in original hand-wrought iron decorated with three ivy leaves on each side. Creation 1923 - 1925. Usual vertical signature "Leune" on the hat. The Leune establishments specialized in enamelled glassware which continued their activity in this field thanks to the collaboration of the famous enameller and colorist Auguste Heiligenstein (1891-1976) between 1923 and 1926, will not survive the financial crisis of 1929. Dimensions: Height : 34.5 cm Hat height: 14.5 cm Hat
