horizontal veneer embellished with a fillet of lemon tree and adorned with a bronze fall in the upper part. Each upright ends with a curve and a slight groove on each side and ends with a hoof foot. Inside, we find an adjustable shelf on a rack. On the sides, the mahogany veneer is made in butterfly wing embellished with fillets of amaranth and lemon trees. The top of the cabinet is also made of four butterfly-wing leaves in blond mahogany with a rosewood and ebony surround followed by a more sustained mahogany. Inspired by Transition, this small piece of furniture with fine marquetry is characterized by its refinement and elegance.  Period: Early 20th century. In a perfect state.
