Description
-------------

French Rectangular Table, Louis-Philippe period, fitted with a Drop Leaf System. Characteristic rare enough to be underlined, its quality structure is entirely designed in solid Cuban mahogany.

The top off the shutters consists of two overhanging boards. The entire top is made of so-called 'Deployed' Mahogany, thus offering a Perfect visual Symmetric in the designs of the Wood. In Belt, this Cabinet offers a Drawer, with a Depth of 6.5 cm. Hidden below, two notches allow its opening. The flaps are supported in the unfolded position by Tie Rods, placed on either side of this Almost Bicentennial Property. Note the possibility of independently opening each of these two components. The set rests on four Elegantly Turned legs, finished with Brass Ball Sabots. This Rectangular Table, Chic and
