

Very Rare Series Of 10 Portraits Of Roman Emperors - XVIII

85 000 EUR

Signature : suiveur de Titien

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Oil painting

Width : 85

Height : 96

Description

Very rare suite of 10 portraits of Roman Emperors, 18th century oils on canvas. Some accidents and restorations. 80cm x 62cm. With frame: 97 cm x 80 cm. Later frames. Provenance: private collection of castle - Palazzo Bologna. Series of 10 portraits of Roman emperors: Octavius, Augustus, Tiberius, Claudius, Nero, Galba, Oto, Vitellius, Vespasian, Titus, Domitian. Such series of portraits of Roman emperors was commissioned from Titian by the Duke of Mantua, Federico Gonzaga. Originally, Titian had painted the portraits of the Eleven Caesars on canvas for the Ducal Palace of Mantua where they were enshrined in molded stucco frames called the "Cabinet of the Caesars" by the architect and painter Julio Romano. Made at the end of the 1530s, this cycle was sold to King

Dealer

Galerie Baudries

Furniture-paintings-decorative objects 16-19th

Mobile : +32476461960

Grimbergen 1850

Charles I of England in 1627 before going to the gallery of the Palasi de l'Alcarzar in Seville and disappearing in a fire on Christmas night 1734.

Today we know these portraits from the engravings of Aegeidas Saedeler and from copies made by many artists, including the most famous late Bernardino Campi (1522-1591) at the Capodimonte Museum in Naples, which testify to the success of this set. 96 (H) cm x 85 (W) cm including frames. RestorationsA very rare series.