Description

Pair of Louis XVI period bergères, carved and lacquered beechwood.

The backrest is curved; the armrests with cuffs are upholstered in full. Cubic connecting dice unify brackets with a gallant withdrawal, linear crossbars and base. This one is made of four tapered feet with rudent flutes, strangled in their pinched tops at their bases. Balance, nervousness, elegance and quality are the most appropriate terms for this beautiful and very comfortable pair of bergères. It is worth noting the great care taken with the connecting elements of impeccable quality. The connecting dice of one of them are slightly worn (visible on the photographs). The upholstery and fabrics have been completely redone by our upholsterer; the cushions are reversible and removable. The bergère is a rare
