Description

Bronze sculpture, green patina Italian artist, Andrea Picini was born in Rome in 1935 died in 2003 Trained in Paris, he won the prestigious "National Prize for Sculpture" for the first time in 1960 He is a painter, sculptor, ceramist and creator of jewelry. Among the many unusual projects he has carried out, we note his skilful interpretation of the mysteries of the tarot cards. Picini is a wandering artist. Has he lived for long periods abroad? Africa, India, Syria, Yugoslavia and his travels abroad greatly influenced his work. His art can most likely be seen as an attempt to give substance to space and time, embodying his desire to reveal the essence of life
