Description
-------------

Very beautiful porcelain coffee maker or jug, period 1820-1830. Both sides of our jug are decorated with two different landscapes, each representing an architectural view. The fretel, the handle, the spout as well as the neck of our porcelain are entirely enhanced with fine gold. The foot, the inside of the neck as well as the circumference of the lid are embellished with circular nets also made with fine gold. Very beautiful model from the Restoration period, unsigned, which can therefore be attributed either to Paris or Limoges. Dimensions: height 19.5 cm width from the handle to the beak 17 cm Shipping and protection costs in metropolitan France 15 euros. Other destinations contact us.
