the knots. This rug in natural silk on fine cotton, hand-knotted around 1970 is in good condition. A slight general wear gives it a beautiful patina that enthusiasts appreciate. The region of Srinagar in Kashmir is where these wonders are produced and where they were produced, silk on silk or silk on cotton. Srinagar, the Venice of India, its carpets decorated with gardens, such as the Shalimar Gardens, its papier-mâché, and its colorful culture. India and especially the Kashmir region is not a wool-producing country, hence the little use of this material. Apart from the queen of wools the "Shatoosh", known all over the world and coming from an ibex in the mountains of Ladak. The wool used in India comes almost mainly from imports. The pieces from Kashmir are of irreproachable quality, knotted with first-rate materials as beautiful as in Iran and making them for many decades, an important competition. This rug has been professionally cleaned and environmentally friendly. Dimensions: Width: 250 cm (98") x Length: 336 cm (132") FREE SHIPPING FOR FRANCE as for all of our rugs!!!
