Description

Genre scene in the typical Viennese Biedermeier interior with a young woman in a yellow dress, reading a love letter (?). the painting was executed by the good listed Austrian genre, and the still life Karl Viktor Mayr. The Austrian artist Karl Viktor Mayr, born in 1882 in Vienna (died in 1974), was a drawing teacher by education. In May-June 1925, the artist participated for the first time in the exhibition of the Union of Artists in Vienna with three works, then became a regular at major exhibitions and auctions in Vienna (a major auction at the Dorotheum in May 1929 presented his Biedermeier-Interior painting). The artist is listed in the dictionary of Austrian artists Heinrich Fuchs, Vienna 1977. The painting was executed in Batavia (former name of Jakarta, the capital of Indonesia).
