Description

Amusing clay dodo sculpture by Philippe Conficconi (1962-2019)

Philippe Conficconi is a versatile artist who has explored mainly the photographic and sculptural mediums.

In this last category, animal sculptures hold a preponderant place.

Realized in very realistic proportions and attitudes, the animals of Philippe Conficconi remain however easily recognizable thanks to the regular heaps of materials which scatter his creations; giving a style of organic aspect to the whole.
