Description

Regulatory Martini Henry ENFIELD rifle in excellent condition, taken from the famous arms cache found in 2003 by Christian Cranmer at the Royal Palace in Kathmandu, Nepal. It bears numerous markings and hallmarks including the Nepalese regiment under the trigger guard, 'VR sous Couronne Royale' for Victoria Régina on the case, 'W.R' for War Department, under the riser on the left side of the barrel 'NEP' = Nepal, Indian markings, etc... A historic weapon with a lot of provenance, the inside of the barrel is irreproachable and the mechanism works perfectly. Original ENFIELD wand, original tan, a very nice copy to grab. DIMENSIONS - STOCK: 37cm - BARREL: 84cm - TOTAL LENGTH: 126cm CHARACTERISTICS OF THE WEAPON - BRAND: ENFIELD
