Description

Undoubtedly, the Bidjar, remain the most resistant carpets! Persian Bidjar carpet in wool from the Iranian highlands, hand knotted, 148 cm wide x 200 cm long, circa 1950 in perfect condition. The shaving of these wool carpets is so precise and clean that the material resembles silk giving the wool a beautiful shine. Not far from Sanandaj, the region of finely knotted Senneh rugs, is the small town of Bijar which, together with its surrounding villages, produces what are arguably the heaviest and toughest rugs in Persia. They say "Heavy and thick, Bidjar carpets are difficult to handle but robust for eternity". Our model has a classic decoration with a pale blue and flowery multi-lobed medallion also present on the Senneh. The field presents all in fresh and luminous shades an elaborate carpet of stylized
