Description

Oil on canvas by the famous Trieste artist Riccardo Tosti 1910-1986 nicknamed "the painter of the sun" for his mastery in creating light effects through the contrast between lights and shadows.
We have a tangible demonstration of his abilities in this glimpse of Duttogliano, area on the border between Italy and Slovenia near his hometown, Trieste.
The pergola vineyard offers shelter from the sun
on this small path that crosses the village
The measure of the canvas alone is 60cm wide and 50cm high
Signed and dated on the back.
Signed lower right also on the painting.
In good condition,
