

Lovely Muller Night Light With Anemones Art Nouveau Art Deco

450 EUR

Signature : Muller Frères Lunéville

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Description

Lovely little ball lamp in deeply acid-etched multilayer glass with the famous decor of red anemones flowers and black foliage, all on an opaline background with intercalary inclusions of yellow and blue powders. It has a pretty old frame in gilded bronze surrounded by pearls. Double lighting, both in the upper part and in the foot. No visible signature (which must have been on the hat) but part listed and perfectly referenced. Its lampshade was made to measure by the "Graine de povot" workshop in Bar-Le-Duc (Meuse) with an evening in the color of the flowers. It is therefore ready to be installed in your interior for lighting of the most beautiful effect. The magnificent red color of its flowers literally bursts both on and off. Three flowers in all and a superb color contrast! Dimensions:
