Description

Small polychrome vase bearing the n°61 and the mark of the faience factory of Longwy. This small town in Meurthe-et-Moselle saw the birth of the historic factory of the same name in 1798, whose traditional know-how continues to this day. The ovoid body of this vase is embellished with flowers in shades of yellow, accompanied by brown leaves on an azure blue background. This handcrafted object has a cylindrical neck bordered by a frieze and it rests on a circular base with double moldings. This pretty vase with its crackled appearance and bright colors will naturally fulfill its decorative functions, whether or not it is filled with a bouquet.  Period: Early 20th century Perfect condition Shipping possible by colissimo, with careful packaging and suitable protection Dimensions: Height: 20.5 cm
