Description

This magnificent clock, crafted from solid wood around 1880 in Germany, measures 60 cm in width, 140 cm in height, and 45 cm in depth. Built following the old German tradition, it showcases exceptional craftsmanship in sculpture.

The clock features a hunting theme, intricately adorned with finely carved details. The design includes various animals, rifles, and leaf motifs, all beautifully sculpted around the clock face. These complex elements highlight not only the artisan's skill but also the timeless appeal of traditional German design.

This remarkable piece does more than just tell time; it serves as a tribute to the art of
