Description

Baluster vases in Chinese porcelain, with flared neck, richly decorated identically with animals, flowers, foliage and picturesque characters. The decoration in polychrome enamels is typical of the Mandarin style of the end of the 19th century.

Each vase illustrates scenes from the life of courtiers against a background of dense plant motifs. At the neck, handles in the shape of Fô dogs and on the shoulders golden chimeras adorn each vase. These rest on a circular wooden base, molded. This pair of vases will seduce you with its charm and poetry.  Period: Late 19th century Excellent condition. Shipping possible by Colissimo with careful packaging and appropriate protection. Dimensions: Height: 34 cm Width: 13 cm Depth: 13 cm Weight of the pair: 2.70 kg Ref:
