Description

Chest of drawers in kingwood veneer surrounded by rosewood fillet of the same tone, arranged "four-leaf" on the front and "butterfly wing" on the sides. This piece of furniture includes two drawers, curved and bulbous, with hidden crosspieces, dressed in bronze pull handles and an entrance. They lock using an original lock in working order. The bottom part is decorated with a pattern representing a shell and foliage. The uprights, projecting and bulbous, are decorated with a long fall of bronze wrapped on the edge, and end in an identical alloy shoe. On the top, we find an original thick marble, in brocatelle, in brown and white tones. This follows the shape of this furniture, it is molded in the groove and bec-de-corbin with a projection at the angles. The interiors of the drawers and the bottom of the
