Description

Charming pair of candelabras illuminating with five lights, from the Napoleon III period. The central part of our luminaires represents an urn in beige-brown onyx, veined with white and with two sockets in gilded bronze. This urn is surmounted by five bronze sconces, finished with chiselled brass binets and complete with their sconces as well as their two extinguishers. Our two candelabras rest on a base made up of an onyx plinth of the same color and four small bronze feet, two of which represent lion's paws. Note, no perforation in the binets, they have kept their original state. Dimensions: height 53 cm height with extinguisher 60 cm width from one sconce to the other: 27 cm base: width 15 cm X depth 11 cm Shipping costs contact us
