comfortable piece, so much the decor is abundant and beautifully designed and the high quality kork wool. The Sarough carpet, also known as Hamadan, the Ecbatana of Antiquity, is knotted in a few villages near Sarouk in the agricultural region of Arak. Some European buying houses have had buying agencies there since the middle of the 19th century.
Most of these rugs are nicknamed hamadan by traders, especially the runners knotted in this region.
Sometimes these carpets have distinct identities, and this type is the Sarouk made in the small town of that name but marketed in Hamadan.
These rugs remain very popular in the United States, where decorators appreciate the heavy and important luxurious pieces of wool.
